

WE ARE ALWAYS READY
To serve you with good printing. No matter what the nature of the job may be we are ready to do it at a price that will be satisfactory.

The Mahoning Dispatch

PEOPLE READ THIS PAPER
That's why it would be profitable for you to advertise in it. If there is anything that you want the quickest and best way to supply that want is by placing an advertisement in this paper.

VOL. XLI. NO. 26.

CANFIELD MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, OCTOBER 5, 1917.

$1.00 A YEAR

NORTH LIMA

Oct. 3—The schools will have a lecture course this winter. The course comes from the old bureau and promises to be the best ever. Tickets will soon be on sale, and may be secured from high school students. The following numbers comprise the course: Friday, Nov. 16, Saxtonian Sisters Quartet, Monday, Dec. 3, Col. Wm. H. Mille of Portland, Ore.; Monday, Jan. 22, Tyroler Alpine Yodler Quartet; Monday, Feb. 18, Dr. G. Whitefield Ray, returned missionary; Tuesday, March 19, The Parnells, musical entertainers.

An interesting program of music and talks and declamations has been arranged for the next meeting of North Lima grange. The grange is very much awake and is adding new members right along.

The following young men from Beaver township will report at Camp Sherman on the next call: Ray Frith, Walter Troyer, Carl Leshner, Paul Weaver, Frank Kellner, Robert Reedman, Harvey Rohrer, The Red Cross has provided comfort kits for each one who has been called.

The Luther League of Good Hope Lutheran church will meet Saturday evening at 7:30. Sunday school and church next Sunday morning.

Robert Tlemann left Saturday for Harrisburg, Pa., where he will spend a few days with his parents before going into a training camp. His mother is in very poor health. He expects to return about Friday. On Friday evening fellow-employees of the S. M. McKelvey Co. of Youngstown will honor him with a farewell party at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lipp in Youngstown.

Rev. J. H. Graf is spending a few days in Johnstown, Pa., on Synodical business.

Delegates from the local Sunday schools will attend the County S. S. Convention in Youngstown this week. Samuel Snodgrass and daughter of Taylorstown, Pa., were Saturday guests of Dr. and Mrs. V. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Glenn and children motored to Slippery Rock, Pa., Saturday and were over Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Glenn and children motored to Slippery Rock, Pa., Saturday and were over Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Chambers.

Charles Hamrick and wife motored to Steubenville Sunday and spent the day with the former's sister and family.

Mrs. E. M. Cover was in New Castle Saturday and attended the funeral of George Jessop, well known here.

Mrs. Earl Cover entertained the Priscilla ladies at her home Thursday afternoon.

Ernest Glenn of Youngstown spent several days last week in the village. Ed. Lovelock has been enjoying a short vacation in Michigan.

Interest in knitting for the Red Cross seems to be on the increase and women of all ages are busy with the life have become busy on sweaters and socks for the soldiers.

Farmers are busy cutting corn, filling silos and digging potatoes. Crops are reported as above the average all through the district.

M. W. Beck and O. P. Gossard of the Wooster Experiment Station are engaged in making a soil map of Mahoning county, and have been working in this township for a few days.

The different soils are being classified by boring into the soil with huge augers. Reports of the work will be put on file for the use of the farmers and will be of much benefit in determining the kind of quantity of fertilizer to be used.

The Parents Teachers Association of North Lima schools will have their first meeting some time this month. A committee consisting of Prof. E. R. North, Miss Rich, Miss Longstreet, Mrs. M. L. Beard and Mrs. J. E. Glenn will have charge of the program. The date of the first meeting will be announced later.

GREENFORD

Oct. 3—O. S. Walter and nephew, Myron Griffith, of Locust Grove, Mrs. J. H. Weikart and Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Walter attended the Canton fair last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Huffman spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. John Basinger in Canfield and the week-end with their children in Youngstown, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Myers of Beaver Falls called on Mrs. Charles Clay, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Creel of Youngstown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stauter and son Laurence of Columbiana and Mrs. Charles Hively and daughter Angeline of Leetonia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hively.

Oscar, Noah and Floyd Clay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay.

O. S. Walter and Henry Knox spent Sunday with Walter Barnes in Canfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Weikart, Henry Knox, Miss Myrtle Hively and Mrs. Charles Wilson attended Goshen grange fair last Wednesday night.

Remember the grange fair and chicken pie supper Saturday night.

Among the sick are Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bush and Mrs. E. E. Hendricks. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes of Custer, Mich., are spending a few days with the former's aunt, Miss Dorothy Hulin.

Mrs. Charles Clay is spending a week with Mrs. Wallace Orender and Mrs. Maria Popple.

Miss Margaret Post of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Rhodes.

Ina Kindig spent Tuesday night with Edith Rogers in Canfield.

Warren Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of Youngstown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muntz, son and daughter of Albany were Greenford callers Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes of Custer, Mich., are spending a few days with the former's aunt, Miss Dorothy Hulin.

BERLIN CENTER

Oct. 3—Mr. and Mrs. Woodville Feltman and family spent Friday.

Mrs. Emma Duesman spent Saturday and Sunday at W. H. Hoover's.

Ell Bakertraw and family spent Saturday and Sunday at Nelson Ledges.

Mrs. Emma Duesman spent Saturday with Mrs. Gudger.

C. M. Shively had business in Canfield Tuesday.

Word comes from B. T. Stanley that he and his party are having a fine automobile trip to his home in California.

John Oatsdean and family of Youngstown spent Sunday here visiting at J. L. Wilsdorf's.

Mrs. Will Hudson was in Hudson Monday.

Several of our boys will leave Sunday morning for Camp Sherman. Not many single men of draft age are left in this neighborhood.

Will Shilling, Earl Orr and Roy Renkenberger were at Nelson Ledges Sunday.

Seneca Hartzell and family spent last Sunday with friends in Pennsylvania.

J. L. Wilsdorf and wife spent Sunday with friends in North Berlin.

Johna Baringer and family of Shelltown were here Monday.

Rev. Cane, our new minister, will occupy the Methodist pulpit next Sunday morning. Epworth League meeting in the evening at 7:30.

Martin Hoover expects to leave Ft. Ben Harrison next Monday for his home here for a short visit.

Fall crops are being harvested. Frost whitened the corn in some localities the first of this week.

Oct. 3—Howard Woolf and Ray Beckman were Salem callers Thursday.

Mrs. John Hoyle and daughter Charlotte, Mrs. M. A. Westover, Mrs. Laurence Allen and children were in Palmyra Saturday.

Mrs. Nettie Painter has returned home after spending several days in Youngstown.

Mrs. Carl Florence and daughter, Mrs. Ray Beckman and son and Mrs. Florence Lundy spent Thursday at W. S. Hoover's.

Rev. Nichols has gone to Cleveland and Rev. Mr. Caven now has charge of Berlin Center and Deerfield Methodist churches.

Mr. Vernon Booth is confined to her home with jaundice.

Mrs. W. G. Paxson is improving after an illness of two weeks.

A statement in this correspondence last week was that Charles Brown and Charles Keeler, men employed by I. J. Smith, were making their home at W. S. Hoover's. That was a mistake. The men are Chas. Bryan and Walter Keeler and they are boarding at Mrs. Painter's.

Oct. 3—Mr. and Mrs. Will Rhodes of Lynn Street spent Sunday with O. S. Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yeager and daughter of Youngstown spent Sunday at Frank Crum's.

Extra Yeager was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeCamp and Calvin Musser called at Samuel Rupert's on Crane Street Sunday afternoon.

Wm. Gardner and Tom Yeager are filling silos.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cox of Youngstown spent Sunday afternoon at J. C. Allspaugh's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Shafer and Miss Evelyn Shafer called at Wm. Peck's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn DeCamp and two sons of Youngstown spent Sunday evening at R. P. DeCamp's.

H. C. Clay and family called at Chas. Hartner's in Canfield Sunday.

Sherman Corli, Mrs. Eva Musser and daughter Charlotte ate Sunday dinner with Mrs. Sarah Sanzenbacher in Canfield.

Russell Siegel and family spent Sunday in Youngstown.

T. E. Yeager's entertained at their pleasant home last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Amanda Yeager, sons Howard and Floyd and daughters Lulu and Josephine, of Geesburg, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Everett and Lily Everett, of Beach Bottom, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner and daughter and H. C. Clay Wm. Shafer called on Randall Albert Sunday afternoon.

The people of this street certainly sympathize with Johnsonville for we had duck eggs stolen in day light. The parties are known.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harding one day last week, most of the people on the street being present. Music and games passed the evening away. At a late hour a delicious lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Harding expect to soon move to their fine property on Parkwood avenue in Youngstown.

Oct. 3—Ferd Painter and family and Mrs. Homer Davis of Salem visited at Irwin Cole's last Sunday.

Henry Lehman and family of Island were Sunday callers at H. L. Burns.

MINERAL RIDGE

Oct. 3—Misses Emily Lewis and Mildred Brown entered the Kent Normal school last week in Canada.

Mrs. Roy L. Knight of Girard was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thomas.

Miss Nellie Ely of Garrettsville has concluded a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Larmet.

The Study Club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Miss Sophia A. Davis. A short business meeting will precede the regular program.

Walter Jones was kicked on the head by a horse last Monday, rendering him unconscious for a time and causing a severe scalp wound necessitating three stitches. He is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings of Steubenville and Russell Foulk of Youngstown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Croft.

Mrs. John Davis and daughter Cecilia of Toledo are spending two weeks in the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. J. C. Sharrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. English of New Castle, Pa., were Sunday guests of L. S. Bell and family.

Mrs. J. T. Williams of Depot street is critically ill.

The marriage of Miss Bertha James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James of the Ohltown road, and Herbert Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richards, took place a week ago.

Mrs. Edward Croft has returned from an extended trip to the West. Mrs. Flora John and granddaughter, May Alene Lehner, left Saturday for Chicago where they will join other members of the family and go to Denver, Col., where they expect to reside.

Mrs. Lehner, the mother of May, has regained her health after almost a year in a sanitarium.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Bourne, new pastor of the M. E. Church, are moving into the parsonage recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Warrack.

The Profit and Pleasure Club of the M. E. Church held a business meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Edwin Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stokes of Akron have concluded a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stokes.

Mrs. David Brown has returned from a visit with Cleveland relatives. On Friday, Oct. 5, the Ridge will be a deserted spot, for all who possibly can will be in Niles to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Kinley Memorial. At least 5,000 guests are expected in the city on that day.

BOARDMAN

Oct. 3—Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Barton visited Mrs. Barton's parents in Alliance, Sunday.

Mr. Cunningham and family of Youngstown visited at "Squire Brown's" Sunday.

Sunday visitors at H. C. Heintzelman's were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lind and daughter of Middlebranch, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kyle of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beard and son Elton and daughter Naomi of New Egypt and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heintzelman of Shady Hollow.

Homer Holl and family visited relatives in Andover over Sunday.

John Kraser of Monroe county visited his niece, Miss Gertrude Nelson, at the Boardman school Friday.

Mr. Starr, eighth grade teacher, spent the week-end with his family in Butler, Pa. His wife and little daughter came back with him. He is looking for a house so he can move here.

H. F. Lyman of Andover spent Friday night at H. C. Heintzelman's.

The high school boys went to Sebring last Friday afternoon and played football. Score 0 to 0.

Walter Kerr was in North Lima Saturday evening.

H. C. Heintzelman and son John were in Columbiana Saturday.

Quite a crowd from here attended the school fair at Pleasant Grove Friday evening.

A crowd from Youngstown had a corn roast at Mr. Blair's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rice and Mrs. A. P. Lloyd of Youngstown called at H. C. Heintzelman's Monday evening.

Joshua Simon and Carl Born were in Canfield Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Christ Berner was in Canfield Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Frederick and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Frederick and children called at Allen Frederick's in Shady Hollow Sunday afternoon.

Geo. Sparrow of Windsor recently visited his sister, Mrs. Frances Sparrow.

MILLVILLE

Oct. 3—The Green Township Sunday school convention will be held in the school house here Sunday afternoon and evening, Oct. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Greenamyer, son Donald and Mrs. A. R. Greenamyer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Gilmore of New Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holwick and daughters Hazel and Winifred spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Varian in Canton.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Susan Dunn by her children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Crutcher Sunday to remind her of the 76th anniversary of her birth. A pleasant time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allison and children motored to Youngstown and spent Sunday afternoon with friends.

Harry and Charles Parker enjoyed the company of the King's Daughters at the Knights of Honor of Millville Sunday school in their home Thursday evening. Victrola music and games entertained. Refreshments were served.

Homer Dunn, who has been employed in Youngstown, resumed his duties Monday.

Ralph Arner of Youngstown spent the week end here with his parents.

Miss Elesta Baker of Frostburg, Md., is the instructor in our school this year.

Thomas and Wm. Howell attended the Goshen grange fair last Wednesday.

Archie Holland left Sunday for Ohio Northern college where he will take a course in the department of chemistry.

CORNBURG

Oct. 3—Rev. J. W. Brownlee was sent to Cornsburg M. E. Church by conference for the ensuing year. Last Friday evening the members of the church gave a reception for the minister, his wife and daughter Anita.

All enjoyed themselves and a very pleasant evening was spent. A beautiful lunch was served. All wish the pastor much success in his new field.

Sunday school will be held every Sunday afternoon at 2:30; preaching at 7:30. Theme for next Sunday evening "The Joy of Forgiveness."

Every Wednesday evening the ladies of the church will meet to knit for the soldiers serving Uncle Sam. Leaders, Miss Brownlee, Miss Amy Kern, Maud Burgett. The ladies of the church will hold a social Saturday evening, Oct. 6.

The first Christian act of the new pastor was to bring here for burial the remains of James Lynn, who was killed and robbed on the Erie road Sept. 1. Mr. Lynn was taken from an orphan's home and as no relatives called at the morgue for the body Rev. Brownlee assisted by Mrs. Lynn's Sunday school teacher, Mrs. Straley, had the remains brought to the church and buried in the Cornsburg cemetery.

Strange to say the dirt Mr. Lynn joined the young men's bible class of 25 the teacher talked on the lesson, "The wages of sin is death," and the pastor, who preached the funeral sermon, Rev. Gray, had for his text, "The wages of sin is death."

The teacher of the young men's bible class, Mrs. Bertha Straley, wishes to thank the following friends for contribution handed her to pay the funeral expenses and decorate the grave: Harry Klingman and Thomas Chas. Jordan, $5 each; James Lynn's pay, $3; G. B. McKnight, Irvin Sanzenbacher, and Chas. Popovich, $2 each; Walter Carlisle, $1.50; $1 each—James Barger, Elizabeth Turner, Wm. Pink, Floyd Pink, John Pink, Chas. Wehr, Walter Gilkey, Marie Dushman, Jas. Grim, Julius Stickle, William Hamman, Ray Hull, Earl Osborn, Amos Belcher, Mark Wehr, Melvin Schrum, Clarence Lynn, M. J. Brooks, Bertha Straley, Fred Straley, Chas. Snyder, Al Moser, Joe each—Ina Kennedy, Norman Mesmer, Howard Corli, Susie Bowdre, Lucy Andrews, Wylie Velma Mayberry, Mrs. Steadfull W. B. Hopkins, John Jones, Wm. Patterson, Mr. Lute, Mrs. Sanzenbacher, Thomas Carlisle, Curtis and family—Walter Crum, John Snyder, Allen Snyder, Calvin Osborn, Austin Crum, Lois DeCamp, Mrs. Kirk, Oscar Burgett, Harry Belcher, Joe Engler, Frank Lanterman.

Teddy Kern, aged about 12 years, was run down by a motorcycle Monday evening but escaped with but a slight injury. His skull was fractured and a leg broken. It is said he stepped aside on the road to escape being struck by an automobile and got into the path of the motorcycle.

MAPLE GROVE

Oct. 3—John Cool and family and Mabel Crumbaker were Sunday guests at Frank Crumbacher's in East Leetown.

Monroe Hendricks and wife of Youngstown visited friends here Sunday.

R. Davis and wife were Sunday guests at Allen Culp's.

The orchestra met at Warren Cool's Saturday evening.

Amelia Mellinger of Salem is spending a week with Daniel Fisher.

Vera Cook called on Thelma Culp Sunday.

Farmers are busy filling silos.

Harry Roller and Raymond Cochel called on Myron Cool Sunday evening.

Joah Detwiler spent Sunday in Cleveland with his sister, Mrs. C. A. Crawford.

Alice Weikart and Angeline Calvin spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Clark Fitzpatrick.

Clement Beard and family and Irwin Smith and family of Columbiana called on U. D. Calvin's Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Myrtle Brockway of Youngstown called on Mrs. Allen Culp Monday.

Monno Brubaker bought an Indiana oil of Joe Moskoskie and is moving it to his farm.

John Weikart and family spent Sunday at the home of Noah Bixler.

Calvin Monday.

The Boy's school will hold a school fair Thursday evening, Oct. 11. All interested bring your best products and make the evening a pleasant one. The young ladies will have a pie social and the boys will conduct a grocery. Music by the orchestra. Come and spend the evening with us.

ELLSWORTH

Oct. 3—Mrs. Emma White has returned to her home to Wooster after spending a few days with Mrs. C. Case.

There will be preaching in the Methodist church next Sunday morning by Rev. C. Cope.

Mr. Fenton of North Jackson and Marie Wilson of this place were married last week. Congratulations.

Mrs. E. E. Matthews and Mrs. F. C. Allen were in Salem Thursday.

The Men's Bible class of the Presbyterian church very pleasantly entertained their wives and friends at a corn roast in David Allen's woods Friday evening.

The road leading south from here will be opened to traffic soon.

Mrs. Leo Meyer and daughter Ella and Mrs. Russi visited Mrs. John Schaefer Monday.

Mr. Barnard of Alliance visited relatives here last week.

E. Bennett is on the sick list.

Miss Pauline Scher and Mrs. Marian Brown spent Sunday with their parents.

L. B. Bingham has sold his farm to Fred Todd and expects to give possession at once.

A missionary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Brown, Oct. 11.

Our observation is that the reason a woman likes to admit that she was wrong is because a horse travels faster upside down.

Read the Classified Columns.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Oct. 3—A temperance program will be rendered by the United Evangelical Sunday school next Sunday evening. All attend.

Mr. and Mrs. August Burkholz of Youngstown spent Sunday at the home of Erwin Schrum and Glen McMahon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Campbell and son Kennis, Ray Friggle and Miss Laura Haefka of Youngstown spent Sunday here with relatives.

Fred Haefka, who had his left leg injured some time ago, is able to drive team again.

Rev. H. A. Hensel did not take a pastoral charge at the session of conference recently held. He and Mrs. Hensel will move to Chicago and live with their son Lefroy who occupies a pulpit in one of the suburban churches and is taking a divinity course in the University of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Schrum, Mrs. Angeline Ohl and P. D. Schrum were recent guests of friends near Garfield.

Ell Friggle and Freeman Ripple are building a dwelling in Ohltown.

There is much constantly said and written in effect that the "Housewife should conserve food and eliminate waste" but no caution given to the opposite sex to abstain from wasting money in the purchase of many unnecessary and high priced items. Better start a bank account or purchase Liberty bonds.

Oct. 3—W. H. Brickley is hauling logs from here he intended to load here, but for lack of cars must load elsewhere.

Mrs. Geo. Anderson went to Youngstown Tuesday.

The drafted boys from here at Chillicothe report being well satisfied.

Chas. Jordan said Tuesday was well attended.

Rev. Paul Jones will preach in the old church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Attend and hear this able speaker.

Perry Ohl is finishing the carpenter work Mrs. May's house.

Earl Bauman has a Ford car.

A real coal famine is on right here in West Austintown where once much coal was mined.

Alex McFee is home again.

J. H. McDonald is inspector on the good road.

Ray Friggle was home over Sunday.

G. I. Crum and family spent last Saturday and Sunday with his brother in Trumbull county.

Bob Cook and wife have moved into the Harris house.

GEEBURG

Oct. 3—Arkie Miller and Uria Yeager were in Salem Monday.

Howard Yeager called at Tom Yeager's on North St. Sunday.

Donald Berkeley called on John Bartholomew Monday.

Marion Tanner, our teacher, spent the week end with her parents in Canfield.

Estie Miller was in Jackson and Rosemont Saturday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew ate their Sunday dinner with Charley Clay and family in Dublin.

Bertha Musser and James Leonard and wife spent Friday evening with Mrs. Samuel Gault.

Roy Williams and family ate their Sunday dinner with the former's brother Frank in Apple Avenue.

Mrs. Joe Bixler and Donald Berkeley were in Youngstown Saturday.

Farmers are cutting corn and filling silos.

Manus Yeager and family visited at Tom Yeager's on North St. Saturday night.

Mrs. Hiram McKenzie and daughter Ava were Sunday afternoon guests at Uria Yeager's.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Bunts spent Sunday evening in Rosemont.

Mrs. Martha Miller has returned home after a visit with friends in Warren and Youngstown.

ROSEMONT

Oct. 3—Henry B. Rose, one of the oldest and best known residents of Jackson township, died last Saturday at his home near Rosemont of valvular heart trouble from which he suffered several months. Deceased was born 79 years